

Leaders in Training (LIT) Coordinator

Job Description

Reports To: Program Director

Supervises: Leaders in Training (LITs)

American Youth Foundation Mission

We dare people to discover and celebrate the very best in themselves and others; inspire them to explore diverse perspectives and complex challenges; and embolden them to live courageously, engaging their full capacity.

Job Location: Position is located at Miniwanca in Shelby, Michigan. The Miniwanca site necessitates the ability to move through rugged terrain. Coordinators will live onsite during staff training and during the two camp sessions.

Job Type: Seasonal

Job Summary: The Leader In Training (LIT) Coordinator supports the Leaders in Training by providing mentorship as they transition from camper age to staff age. The LIT Coordinator will assist the LITs with organizing their daily schedule, planning for coverage of leaders, and facilitating daily skits and activities. Summer 2024 will include two weeks of paid staff training beginning June 16, followed by two three-week camp sessions. Most seasonal contracts will conclude August 11.

Position Responsibilities:

- Primarily responsible for the health, safety, and wellbeing of LITs and campers.
- Appropriately manage behavior challenges and conflict with a sense of respect for young people and a focus on developing the social emotional health of campers.
- Support LITs with programming, facilitation, and camper challenges that may arise.
- Actively participate in all camp activities with enthusiasm, creating an inclusive environment that encourages all campers to participate.
- Provide mentorship and connection to all campers in the community with whom you interact.
- Model responsibility and compassion for campers in all activities
- This is not meant to be a complete list of all responsibilities. Other duties may be assigned.

Skills and Qualifications:

Required:

- Must be at least 21 years old.
- Strong facilitation/teaching skills.
- Previous experience working with youth.
- Demonstrated positive leadership with young adults.
- Strong organizational and communication skills.
- Ability to effectively manage people in a way that positively supports their development.

- Strong emotional and mental health. Must be adaptable and exhibit good judgement to determine what is in the best interest of the campers in their care.
- Support the organization's mission and vision with integrity, dependability, and accountability.
- Interact effectively with individuals and groups respecting social and cultural diversity. Establish and maintain appropriate professional relationships and interpersonal skills that contribute to a positive community.
- Demonstrate passion for serving youth, encouraging campers to explore through play and creating a space where youth feel included and a sense of belonging.
- Fully participate in and be present at all camp community activities, including staff training activities.
- Maintain effective mental, emotional, and social interactions in our youth centered residential summer camp program.
- Ability to handle stressful situations appropriately, maintaining mental, emotional, and social resiliency needed for the job in a fast-paced, interactive environment.
- Use effective and appropriate self-care practices for maintaining overall wellness.
- Follow all guidelines and policies as described in the AYF (American Youth Foundation) staff manual.

Preferred:

- Previous experience teaching and/or large group facilitation.
- Valid driver's license.

Work Environment:

- Position is located at Miniwanca in Shelby, Michigan. The Miniwanca site necessitates the ability to move through rugged terrain.
- Staff members will live onsite during staff training and during the two camp sessions, including weekends and evenings, to be available 24 hours/day in case of emergency response.
- Housing and all meals are provided.
- Staff live in a communal space with other staff or in cabins with campers, depending on position.

Compensation:

- Weekly pay: $750/week.
- Coordinators will receive one day off for every six days worked.

Company Culture:

The AYF believes that how we act and interact reflects who we are as a community. In practice, at the AYF we value investing in youth, stewarding the environment, encouraging participants and staff to explore and develop their values and beliefs, belonging in community, and growing together.
